

AMENDMENTS TO THE SPECIFICATION

Please replace paragraph [0026] with the following amended paragraph:

[0026] As previously mentioned, the conventional model 100 for data access of Figure 1 has custom objects through which applications access data via custom interfaces. In contrast, the model 200 of Figure 2 illustrates a generic navigation module 250 through which applications may access a wide variety of data such as calendar data 210, in-box data 220, document data 230, or other data 240. This data may include data that is maintained in an identity-centric manner as described in commonly-owned co-pending United States patent application serial number ~~not assigned~~10/003,750-attorney docket number 13768.198.1}, filed on the same date as this application, and entitled "~~identity centric data access~~Identity-Centric Data Access", which application is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. As used in this description and in the claims, an "identity" may be an individual, a group of individuals, an organization, or any other identifiable entity.
